

Group Names: _____

Exceeds Expectations 97 - 100	Meets Expectations 80 - 96	Needs Improvement 60 - 79	Does Not Meet Expectations 0 - 59
Students Moral was very well thought out, masterfully performed, and followed a definition thoroughly (Literal or class defined). Students used appropriate voicing throughout their performance and made exceptional audience connections throughout. Group performance was 3 - 5 minutes in length. Group used all parts of the stage. Group utilizes masks and props and are relevant to the scene.	Students Moral was well thought out, well performed, and followed a definition thoroughly (Literal or class defined). Students used appropriate voicing throughout their performance and made good audience connections throughout. Group performance was 2:45 - 3:00 or 5:00 - 5:15 minutes in length. Group used all parts of the stage.	Students Moral was moderately thought out, mostly performed well, and mostly followed a definition (Literal or class defined). Students mostly used appropriate voicing throughout their performance and mostly made good audience connections throughout. Group performance was 2:00 - 2:45 or 5:15 - 5:00 minutes in length. Group used most parts of the stage.	Students Myth wasn't well thought out, wasn't well performed, and didn't follow a definition (Literal or class defined). Students didn't use appropriate voicing throughout their performance and didn't make good audience connections throughout. Group performance was under 2 or over 6 minutes in length. Groups didn't utilize all parts of the stage.
Students have written a detailed plot of their Moral.	Students have written a detailed plot of their Moral.	Students have written a mostly detailed plot of their Moral.	Students haven't written a detailed plot of their Moral.

Comments: _____

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---